

SUE CATTLE FIRM
FOR PASTURE CLAIMMrs. Ross and Widow of the Late Mayor Robinson
Get Injunction.

Suit asking judgment for $1542.10, a foreclosure on a herd of 1800 cattle, valued at $10,000, a receiver to care for the cattle during the suit and an injunction prohibiting the removal of the cattle from the jurisdiction of the court, has been filed in the 24th district court by Catharine Ross, administrator of the estate of her brother, H. G. Ross, deceased, and Mrs. Hattie B. Robinson, widow of the late mayor W. F. Robinson. The defendants in the action are Bogel, Brown & Gohlke, cattle dealers, with headquarters at Marfa, but whose operations extend over Presidio and Bexar counties.

The petition filed by the plaintiffs recites that the firm of Ross & Robinson, both members of which have died since entering into a contract on November 11, 1909, agreed to pasture 1800 head of cattle belonging to the defendants for 35 cents per head per month. The pastures on which the cattle were placed are at Fort Hancock. The contract was dated to expire on October 31, 1910.

The petition also recites that the defendants are now indebted to the plaintiffs in the sum of $1542.10 for pasturing the stock and furnishing supplies for the defendant's agents. An injunction order issued by Judge Harper prohibits the removal of the cattle from the court's jurisdiction. The plaintiffs have filed a $2000 bond. Suits involving the estate of Mr. Ross are now pending in the district court. He died at Fort Hancock last spring. Mr. Robinson was killed by falling walls at the Buckler building fire.

MAYOR'S BUDGET TO
BE $575,000
NEXT YEAR

Assessed Valuation Exceeds
$31,273,146.50 and Taxes
May Be Lowered.

The assessed valuation of El Paso for 1910 amounts to more than $31,273,146.50, and mayor Kelly's budget for 1911, estimated, will be about $575,000.

The valuation total was arrived at Monday afternoon by city clerk Foy, but it is stated that a $10,000 increase is yet to be added. The valuation includes the rendered roll of property amounting to $28,904,641.50, and the unrendered roll of $5,668,505. The rendered roll was totaled several weeks ago, but the total of the unrendered roll was not known until Monday afternoon.

Now that the assessed valuation is known, mayor Kelly will announce the tax rate, which must be sufficient to produce the sum required in the budget for city expenses. The last rate is $1.90 on the $100 valuation, and it is stated that the rate will not be increased for the coming year.

At the rate of $1.90 this would produce about $590,000. Over $200,000 will come out of the budget for sinking funds and interest payments and for the payment of city school expenses.

The payment of city taxes will not be commenced until December 19, as it will take almost two weeks after mayor Kelly announces the tax rate to list the property of the city and prepare the receipts.
